

International Student Declaration of Finances

Please review this form carefully and complete all the requirements. Any mistakes may result in a delay in processing your immigration paperwork. Any questions can be sent to ummadmissions@maine.edu.

You must provide evidence of financial support for all anticipated educational and living expenses for the first year of study in the United States before immigration documents can be issued. Please refer to this website for current estimated costs: <https://machias.edu/admissions/tuition-fees/>.

The evidence you provide must be in English and less than one year old. To expedite the process, the Admissions Office accepts scanned copies of required documents but reserves the right to request the original documents, if needed.
