The Early College Becoming a Teacher Pathway is designed to give students a set of introductory-level credits with a focus on the field of education, including an introduction to the history and philosophy of pedagogy, a study of the teaching process, and an exploration of best practices for teaching students with exceptionalities.

This pathway may lead to the following programs at UMM:
- B.S. in Education with concentrations in:
  - Elementary Education
  - Secondary Education
  - Special Education
  - Inclusive Early Childhood Education
- Minors in:
  - Coaching
  - Secondary Education

Completion of these programs allows students to pursue careers in the following fields:
- Activity/recreation director
- Case/care manager
- Educator in primary and secondary schools
- Family resource coordinator
- Family support professional/advocate
- Government official
- Negotiator/mediator
- Non-profit organization director
- Preschool teacher
- Sports administrator
- Youth counselor

Pathway Requirements:
- EDU 112: Foundations of Education
- ENG 101: Composition and Presentation I
- ENG 111: Composition and Presentation II
- SED 201: Dimensions of Exceptionality in the Classroom
- EDU 216: The Teaching Process

Courses are listed in suggested sequence.

Get a head start on your UMM degree!
Sign up today at machias.edu/earlycollege
For more information contact 207.255.1268 or ummearlycollege@maine.edu

The University of Maine at Machias is an EEO/AA employer, and does not discriminate on the grounds of race, color, religion, sex, sexual orientation, transgender status, gender expression, national origin, citizenship status, age, disability, genetic information or veteran’s status in employment, education, and all other programs and activities. The following person has been designated to handle inquiries regarding non-discrimination policies: Director of Equal Opportunity, 101 North Stevens Hall, University of Maine, Orono, ME 04469-5754, 207.581.1268, TTY 711 (Maine Relay System).